RULES

1. Any Indian person is permitted to enter the Fry Bread Contest. We have both an ADULT division (age 16 and above) and a YOUTH division (age 15 and under). The ages for the divisions are strictly for the Fry Bread Contest, and are not to be confused with any other age categories throughout the Pow Wow.
2. Fry Bread will be made fresh on Saturday, July 23, 2005
3. PRINT your name on the bottom of a regular white paper plate. NO styrofoam, please!
4. Place a napkin on top of the paper plate, then place your Fry Bread on the napkin. Please DO NOT cut your fry bread!
5. Fry Bread entries must be submitted by 11:00 am Eastern Time (sorry...but we can't run on Indian time...we have lots to do today!)

The Pow Wow Committee will choose one (1) person to be count verifier when votes are being tallied.

Five (5) judges, and one (1) alternate judge, chosen by the Pow Wow Committee, will be judging the Fry Bread on the following criteria:

Roundness
Appearance
Taste
Texture
Oil Control

The Pow Wow Committee will cut each Fry Bread entry into 5 pieces after it has been judged for roundness and appearance. Judges will sample each Fry Bread entry. Judges will cleanse their palate with bottled water between sampling.

~ The decision of the judges is final. ~
